

THE LAST OF A LEGEND

CAMARO®

Z28

KRUSE INTERNATIONAL PROUDLY PRESENTS THE LAST CAMARO OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC IN THE UNITED STATES, SELLING AT NO RESERVE - 2002 CHEVROLET CAMARO Z28. SELLING SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 1ST. LOT #4075

Fads come and go. Other things - Saturday nights, the classic sound of rock & roll, and a thrill ride called CHEVY CAMARO -- last forever.

It's been 35 years since the first Camaro roared to life, escalating the classic Chevrolet-Ford rivalry to a fever pitch. Right from the beginning, with its dramatic styling and choice of hot engines, the Camaro was the "closest thing to a 'Vette yet." Terms like "SS," "Z28," and "Rally Sport" meant one thing: A VERY COOL CHEVY.

This legend of the American road comes to an end this year with the production of the 2002 model. Kruse is privileged to be selected by Chevrolet to offer the last Chevy Camaro saleable in the United States - an incomparable Camaro Z28 Coupe built with specifications and options fitting for the final effort of the marque.
